

Kelsey/LTM

From: Andrea
Sent:
To: Kelsey/LTM
Subject: separation anxiety

Hi Jackie:

I just wrote to Ted and told him that you guys need to call up this weekend's bride and break some bad news to her: she can't get married this weekend because Tony and I want a repeat!

I cannot thank you enough for last weekend. It was, to date, the best weekend of our lives. My mother and I cannot stop crying about it--and all of our friends and family can't stop talking about it!

You are wonderful. In more than just the I-run-the-best-wedding-venue-on-the-earth kind of way. You did so much more than guarantee us a beautiful wedding-- you personally sat on the floor with Ashley in Palomino trying to get the dirt off the bottom of my dress clean; you went out and got those photos of Millie avec fur coat developed; you saw to it that I had something to eat at the cocktail hour. That, to me, goes far beyond what's expected. It is truly extraordinary.

I also cannot say enough about your staff. In particular, Ryan, Kelly, Ashley--and of course Ted (doesn't that go without saying???) Ryan was so great--really courteous and friendly with the guests, but always keeping them in line in the most professional, nonchalant way. Kelly was wonderful at both the Cottage House and at the Manor--I couldn't stop hugging her! Ashley blew us away, too--we still cannot stop talking about how she sewed the neck of Millie's stuffed elephant without being asked! And Ted, well, there really is just too much to say....

Thank you all for giving us the most beautiful, perfect wedding weekend--and for giving all of our family and friends such a warm welcome--and of course, giving them the party of all parties...

Just a heads up--we are already planning on coming to the New Years' Eve Party!

Thank you, Jackie.
All our love,
Andrea

10/10/2008