Elysha & Matty's Wedding

It is just a month now since the wedding - and I just want you all to know how wonderful it was - People say it comes and goes so quickly and enjoy it as much as you can while you're there - BUT I must say I have been enjoying it everyday since... Someone came into the store where I work over the weekend and asked about the wedding - she said that her daughter or son (I never pay 100% attention) is getting married and they were thinking of Lord Thompson Manor. I told her that there is nothing to think about - you're the best! I don't think it could be better. Truly - I smile whenever I think of this or that - the entire weekend, from the moment we arrived, was perfect. You are the wedding people! It does not come better.

Someone is having a wedding next year at Gedney Farm in New Marlborough - they saw the florist this past weekend. When the florist asked what they were thinking of spending the woman told her, "around 15?" - I gather the woman (florist) was aghast - "15! No way - at least 20!". I don't know - have people gone mad? I guess the florist saw her huge diamond and figured she had a hot one! The florist, the baker, everyone - no wedding - at any amount of money could be better than what you did for us. Elysha & Matt (and the rest of us) have a memory that we will savor forever. So I thank you all again and again.

Please tell Ted that we have been listening to his singing and enjoying it so much. The biggest thing (except for the ceremony) that makes me smile the most is thinking of some of Ted's "moments" when he broke out in song! That is why I love listening to the CD - it just makes me smile again. Please pass this on to him - he was fabulous and if he ever is going to be appearing anywhere - we would love to know as we will be the first ones on line for tickets!

Saturday night when he walked me to the room with the Diet Coke (my hands were full) and he sang another song, will be with me forever and always! What a treat! You're lucky to have him (but I know you don't need me to tell you that).

My biggest disappointment was last weekend when I ate the last of the cookies that I had in the freezer - I had grabbed a tin of cookies as we were leaving that Sunday.

Perfect
Everything
Thank you so much

The gal who came into the store - her name is Gerry! Heavy with short gray hair - I wonder if she will be smart enough to turn up there.
